

Unit 8 / Chores

1. The counselling service of the school does a presentation about children's responsibility at home. This presentation is interactive, so the school counsellors ask questions and the students answer them.

School counsellor : Vera, which chores do you do at home?

Vera : I take out the garbage and I help my mum with cooking. I like spending time in the kitchen. I make my bed every day.

School counsellor : That's good Vera. And Dan?

Dan : I clean the bathroom, but I hate that. My mum tells us we must do some chores and it is our responsibility. I don't want to do them and I don't understand why it is my responsibility.

School counsellor : Because everybody in the family should share household responsibilities one person can't do everything. Everybody in the family should help.

Dan : Okay, miss. I get it.

What else can the school counsellor tell Dan?

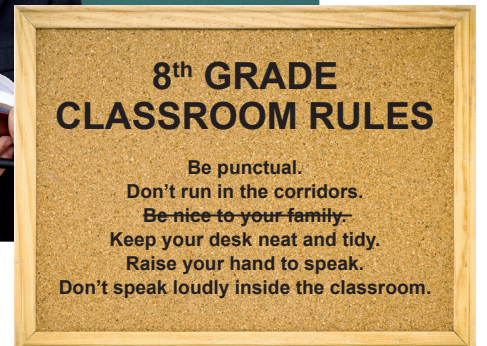

- A) Kids shouldn't do chores. B) He should help Vera.
C) Everybody is equal in the family. D) His mother doesn't have lots of responsibilities.

3. Sue's parents work long hours, so she has learnt to do a lot of chores. Since her childhood, she has shared responsibilities with her parents at home. She washes the dishes, does the laundry and hangs it up. She sometimes vacuums the carpets at the weekend. Her mother loads the dishwasher in the evening and she empties it when she comes back after school. Her father always takes the garbage out and they never ask Sue to do this chore because Sue is really sensitive to stinky things.

Which chore is NOT Sue's task?

6. Tracy: You don't look good nowadays. I think you have a problem. Please, tell me. Maybe I can help you.

Maggie: You're right. I have a big problem with my flatmate. We don't get on well with each other anymore. I do everything at home, but she does nothing. She always leaves the flat dirty and messy. I vacuum the carpet, prepare dinner and breakfast and do the washing up every day. She doesn't do these chores and never thanks me. I am fed up with it I don't want to hurt her feelings, but she needs to stop this. I want to move, but I don't have enough money right now.

Tracy: I'm really sorry to hear that, but don't worry. My flatmate is going on an exchange programme this month. She won't be here for five months. You can stay with me until you find a suitable place if you want.

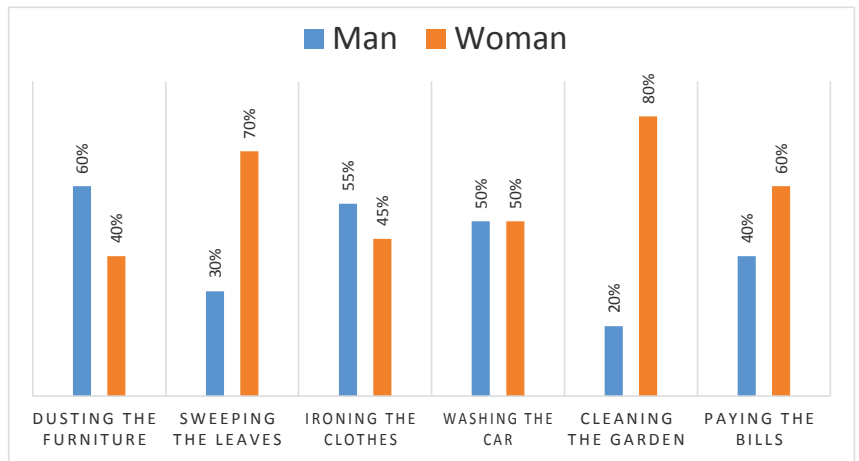

Why does Maggie look bad?

- A) Her flatmate doesn't obey the house rules.
- B) Her flatmate is going on an exchange programme.
- C) She doesn't have any money.
- D) Her flatmate has moved to another friend's house.
