Hello, my name is Sarah. In my family, everybody has different responsibilities. It's important that everybody, especially the children, have regular chores to do. Chores teaches children responsibility and discipline. By this way, they learn to be part of a family. My mom is responsible for cooking the meals. I am responsible for doing the washing up after meals. My father dries the dishes every evening because it is his task. He also does the shopping. At weekends, he washes the car and my brother, Joe, helps him. I help my mom in the house. She vacuums the carpets, I dust the furniture. She does the laundry, I iron the clothes. My brother takes the rubbish out at weekends, but it's my father's responsibility on weekdays.
