The Chores Wars

Meet the Denby family, mom, dad, Jenny, Julia and Jack. They are a typical happy family. And here is a typical Saturday morning in the Denby family's home.

- Mom : Jenny, can you come to the kitchen and help me? It's your turn to clear the table and do the dishes.
- Jenny : Oh, mom. I'm busy right now. I'm chatting online with Cathy. It's important.
- Mom : Please take the dog for a walk. That's one of your weekend chores.
- Julia : But mom.... I'm tired and it's cold outside. Can't Jenny or Jack do it today?
- Mom : Can you please water the plants and take out the trash?
- Jack : Sorry, mom. I'm playing a game right now. I'm just getting to the next level.
- Mom : Honey, do you think you could talk to the kids about their chores?
- Dad : Can it wait? They're showing the highlights of the match just now.
- Mom : Ummm, I see. Everyone is SOOOOO busy!

worksheet 2

Teacher : So Mike. Do you do any household chores at home?

Mike : Sure, I help my mom around the house all the time. Mom has an important job. She's a doctor and she works long hours so I sometimes help her. I don't do the laundry or the ironing, things like that. Mom does those, but I take out the garbage every day and load the dishwasher after dinner. When she does the grocery shopping, I sometimes put the shopping away. My little brother, Simon, helps too. He sets the table for dinner and puts away his toys.

Teacher : What about you, Ethan?

Ethan : Well, my mom's a housewife, and she does the housework because she's at home most of the time. But, me and my sister do some chores. For example, at weekends we make our beds and clean our rooms. I never wash the dishes. I hate doing that! Sometimes, I help my dad when he's washing his car. I like doing that. It's fun.

Teacher : That's good to hear, boys. I'm proud of you. Everyone should help around the house when they can. And you, Danny?

Danny : My mom doesn't let me help her. She does everything herself. Sometimes dad does the cooking. He likes making fish, for example. In fact, he's a very good cook. Then, he asks me to help him so I make a salad or chop some vegetables. Mum hates that because I make a lot of mess!

Teacher : Haha. I see. You need to learn to clean up the kitchen!
