OUR LEGENDARY SPORTSMAN HAS PASSED AWAY. TURKEY IS CRYING FOR HIM.

Naim Süleymanoğlu is a national hero for millions of Turkish people. He's also known as Pocket Hercules. He's been ill for a long time. Unfortunately, doctors couldn't save his life. He passed away on 18 November 2017 at the age of 50.

He was a national sportsman in Turkey. He was a great weightlifter. He dominated the sport in the mid-1980s and 1990s. He was 1 m 50 cm tall, and he had 60 kilos so he competed in the lighter body-weight categories.

He was born in Bulgaria in 1967. He was born to a Turkish family. His father was a miner. He began lifting weights at the age of 10. He won championships in his teens. When he was 15, he set his first world record. However, he couldn't participate in the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles due to Bulgaria's boycott.

In 1986, he became a Turkish citizen, and then he represented Turkey at the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul, South Korea. He won a gold medal there. It was Turkey's first Olympic gold medal in weightlifting. He set world records in Seoul. He lifted 30 kilos more than his nearest rival. That was unbelievable.

What's more, Naim Süleymanoğlu won a gold medal again at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona, Spain and the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, the USA. That made him the sport's first three-time gold medalist. It was a great success. Everybody in Turkey was proud of him.

He got retired in 1997. He became a member of the International Weightlifting Federation in 2000 and 2004.

Turkish people will never forget Pocket Hercules. He'll always be our national hero.
