SENARYO 1

Learning Outcome: E11.5.R1. Students will be able to analyse a text to distinguish the expressions used to express wishes, regrets and unreal past.

1. David and his friends are talking about their regrets in the past. Read the conversation and complete the statements with the correct names.

David : When I was younger, I didn't listen to my dad's advice. Now, I regret not paying attention to my dad's warnings.

Emily : I didn't save money when I had the chance, and now I wish I had. If I had saved more, I wouldn't be struggling financially today.

Michael : I ignored my doctor's advice about doing exercise regularly and eating healthier. I wish I had followed it because I am dealing with health problems now.

Sophie : If I had studied hard at university, I would be more successful in business life.

Tom : I didn't spend enough time with my grandparents when they were alive. I wish I had had more memories with them when I had the chance.

3. Read the text below and answer the questions.

There was a bike crash in the city centre last Monday. The police reported that the cyclist turned his bike suddenly while he was riding in front of a car. After the cyclist was struck and thrown in the air, he was unconscious for approximately 30 seconds. The driver of the car wasn't injured, only his car's windshield had broken. The emergency service described the cyclist as being awake when they arrived. They took him to the hospital because he was complaining about pains in his back. The police noted that the cyclist was wearing a helmet which was also heavily damaged, and most probably the helmet prevented much more serious injury or death.

a. Was the cyclist taken to hospital because he was unconscious?

b. How could the cyclist escape serious injury?
