

Fill In The Blanks with the correct Past Continuous Tense forms of the given verbs.

- 1) The writers _____ (not / develop) complex characters in their works until literary criticism began to push for more nuanced depictions of humanity.
- 2) The engineers _____ (not / plan) for the environmental impact of the construction project before breaking ground.
- 3) The economists _____ (not / predict) such a rapid increase in global trade during the early stages of the market recovery.
- 4) The architects _____ (not / incorporate) sustainability principles into their designs until the environmental crisis became more apparent.
- 5) The psychologists _____ (not / understand) the brain's neuroplasticity until later in the 20th century.
- 6) The teachers _____ (not / implement) differentiated instruction strategies in their classrooms in the past.
- 7) The activists _____ (not / coordinate) the protest actions effectively as the situation escalated.
- 8) The linguists _____ (not / define) the concept of code-switching clearly during their lectures.
- 9) The scholars _____ (not / delve) into the underlying philosophies of the ancient texts before the symposium.
- 10) The authors _____ (not / explore) the dark themes of human nature in their early works.
- 11) The biologists _____ (not / discover) the new species in the rainforest until later in the season.
- 12) The educators _____ (not / adjust) their teaching methodologies to include digital tools during the early years of the initiative.
- 13) The legal team _____ (not / argue) the case based on the new precedent when the trial commenced.
- 14) The analysts _____ (not / forecast) the rise of authoritarian regimes until recent trends began to emerge.
- 15) The educators _____ (not / recognize) the importance of integrating technology into the classroom curriculum back then.
- 16) The psychologists _____ (not / understand) the concept of neuroplasticity until the late 20th century.
- 17) The political analysts _____ (not / predict) the outcome of the election until the final ballots were counted.
- 18) During the symposium, the historians _____ (not / address) the implications of the colonial past in their lectures.
- 19) The archaeologists _____ (not / uncover) any evidence of ancient civilizations in the area when the excavation began.
- 20) The chemists _____ (not / record) their findings accurately during the chemical experiment.
- 21) The psychologists _____ (not / assess) the patient's mental health condition accurately during the initial assessment.
- 22) The activists _____ (not / organize) protests as frequently as they did in previous years due to political restrictions.
- 23) The medical team _____ (not / anticipate) the side effects of the drug during the clinical trials.
- 24) The writers _____ (not / engage) deeply with the themes of isolation and identity during the initial drafts of the novel.
- 25) The mathematicians _____ (not / solve) the complex algorithm before the discovery of a breakthrough method.

Answer Sheet (Q6FCN1)

Past Continuous Tense: Negative Sentences: Advanced Level: Fill In The Blanks Quiz 1

- 1) weren't developing
- 2) weren't planning
- 3) weren't predicting
- 4) weren't incorporating
- 5) weren't understanding
- 6) weren't implementing
- 7) weren't coordinating
- 8) weren't defining
- 9) weren't delving
- 10) weren't exploring
- 11) weren't discovering
- 12) weren't adjusting
- 13) wasn't arguing
- 14) weren't forecasting
- 15) weren't recognizing
- 16) weren't understanding
- 17) weren't predicting
- 18) weren't addressing
- 19) weren't uncovering
- 20) weren't recording
- 21) weren't assessing
- 22) weren't organizing
- 23) wasn't anticipating
- 24) weren't engaging
- 25) weren't solving

scan or click here for more pdfs