

Fill In The Blanks with the correct Past Continuous Tense forms of the given verbs.

- 1) The filmmakers _____ (not / consider) the cultural impact of their portrayal of historical events before the release.
- 2) The scientists _____ (not / agree) on the methodology to study the new disease outbreak.
- 3) The journalists _____ (not / understand) the full scope of the political scandal when it first broke.
- 4) The software engineers _____ (not / test) the application on multiple platforms when the bug appeared.
- 5) The linguists _____ (not / compare) the dialects of the region thoroughly during the field study.
- 6) The critics _____ (not / acknowledge) the subtle commentary on social class in the film at the time of its release.
- 7) The historians _____ (not / acknowledge) the bias inherent in their primary sources at the time.
- 8) The writers _____ (not / explore) the effects of global conflict on personal relationships during the early stages of their careers.
- 9) The economists _____ (not / understand) the complexities of global trade networks until they had gathered more data.
- 10) The engineers _____ (not / anticipate) the need for renewable energy solutions until the energy crisis became apparent.
- 11) The environmentalists _____ (not / acknowledge) the severity of climate change in their earlier reports.
- 12) The philosophers _____ (not / engage) with the metaphysical implications of their theories before publishing their papers.
- 13) The engineers _____ (not / ensure) the reliability of the equipment during the testing phase.
- 14) The consultants _____ (not / evaluate) the effectiveness of the new marketing strategy during the trial period.
- 15) The political analysts _____ (not / predict) the sudden rise in populist movements across Europe last year.
- 16) The writers _____ (not / appreciate) the cultural significance of their work until it gained critical acclaim.
- 17) The anthropologists _____ (not / recognize) the cultural significance of the ritual when they first encountered it.
- 18) The economists _____ (not / determine) the long-term effects of globalization during the early stages of their analysis.
- 19) The researchers _____ (not / observe) the subtle patterns in the data until they adjusted their methodology.
- 20) The engineers _____ (not / innovate) in sustainable infrastructure design until the environmental movement gained momentum.
- 21) The lawyers _____ (not / challenge) the legal precedent set by the earlier court case.
- 22) The physicists _____ (not / predict) the discovery of the new particle until the experiment yielded unexpected results.
- 23) The economists _____ (not / recognize) the correlation between income inequality and social unrest until more data became available.
- 24) The architects _____ (not / adhere) to the proposed design specifications during the construction phase.
- 25) The psychologists _____ (not / recognize) the significance of the patient's early symptoms during the session.

Answer Sheet (Q6FCN2)

Past Continuous Tense: Negative Sentences: Advanced Level: Fill In The Blanks Quiz 2

- 1) weren't considering
- 2) weren't agreeing
- 3) weren't understanding
- 4) weren't testing
- 5) weren't comparing
- 6) weren't acknowledging
- 7) weren't acknowledging
- 8) weren't exploring
- 9) weren't understanding
- 10) weren't anticipating
- 11) weren't acknowledging
- 12) weren't engaging
- 13) weren't ensuring
- 14) weren't evaluating
- 15) weren't predicting
- 16) weren't appreciating
- 17) weren't recognizing
- 18) weren't determining
- 19) weren't observing
- 20) weren't innovating
- 21) weren't challenging
- 22) weren't predicting
- 23) weren't recognizing
- 24) weren't adhering
- 25) weren't recognizing

scan or click here for more pdfs