

Fill In The Blanks with the correct Past Continuous Tense forms of the given verbs.

- 1) The scientists _____ (not / adopt) an interdisciplinary approach to studying biodiversity until more collaborative efforts were made.
- 2) The philosophers _____ (not / examine) the role of technology in modern ethics before the publication of the study.
- 3) The mathematicians _____ (not / use) computer algorithms in their calculations until technology advanced enough to support it.
- 4) The economists _____ (not / evaluate) the impact of automation on job markets before the technology became widely implemented.
- 5) The activists _____ (not / organize) mass protests against government policies until public dissatisfaction reached its peak.
- 6) The philosophers _____ (not / discuss) the ethical dimensions of artificial intelligence in their lectures at that moment.
- 7) The professors _____ (not / summarize) the core concepts of the theory effectively for the students at that stage of the course.
- 8) The philosophers _____ (not / explore) the ethical ramifications of cloning in their debates.
- 9) The philosophers _____ (not / examine) the limits of human knowledge during their discussions on epistemology.
- 10) The writers _____ (not / examine) the psychological depths of their characters before the first draft was completed.
- 11) The economists _____ (not / foresee) the sudden surge in unemployment rates until the financial downturn hit.
- 12) The philosophers _____ (not / debate) the impact of artificial intelligence on human autonomy at that time.
- 13) The engineers _____ (not / design) infrastructure with climate resilience in mind before severe weather events became more frequent.
- 14) The architects _____ (not / anticipate) the logistical challenges posed by the urban redesign during the early planning stages.
- 15) The geneticists _____ (not / study) the long-term effects of gene editing on human health when the breakthrough occurred.
- 16) The historians _____ (not / uncover) the truth about the lost civilization during the first excavation.
- 17) The critics _____ (not / acknowledge) the author's innovative narrative structure at the time of publication.
- 18) The artists _____ (not / challenge) traditional forms of expression in their work during the early phase of the movement.
- 19) The archaeologists _____ (not / discover) the ancient artifacts until the excavation team expanded their search.
- 20) The historians _____ (not / document) the oral traditions of indigenous peoples before the research was expanded.
- 21) The administrators _____ (not / implement) the new company policies in a timely manner when the leadership change occurred.
- 22) The sociologists _____ (not / examine) the social consequences of rapid technological advancements on individual behavior at that time.
- 23) The journalists _____ (not / reveal) the truth behind the scandal until they had gathered enough evidence.
- 24) The social workers _____ (not / focus) on mental health issues within marginalized communities during the early stages of their work.
- 25) The psychologists _____ (not / recognize) the symptoms of the emerging disorder during their first evaluations.

Answer Sheet (Q6FCN5)

Past Continuous Tense: Negative Sentences: Advanced Level: Fill In The Blanks Quiz 5

- 1) weren't adopting
- 2) weren't examining
- 3) weren't using
- 4) weren't evaluating
- 5) weren't organizing
- 6) weren't discussing
- 7) weren't summarizing
- 8) weren't exploring
- 9) weren't examining
- 10) weren't examining
- 11) weren't foreseeing
- 12) weren't debating
- 13) weren't designing
- 14) weren't anticipating
- 15) weren't studying
- 16) weren't uncovering
- 17) weren't acknowledging
- 18) weren't challenging
- 19) weren't discovering
- 20) weren't documenting
- 21) weren't implementing
- 22) weren't examining
- 23) weren't revealing
- 24) weren't focusing
- 25) weren't recognizing

scan or click here for more pdfs