

Fill In The Blanks with the correct Past Continuous Tense forms of the given verbs.

- 1) The engineers _____ (not / apply) green technologies in their projects until public demand for sustainability grew.
- 2) The artists _____ (not / produce) works reflecting contemporary issues until later in their careers.
- 3) The entrepreneurs _____ (not / consider) the long-term environmental impact of their business practices during the planning phase.
- 4) The journalists _____ (not / report) on the growing social movements at the time.
- 5) The scientists _____ (not / agree) on the methodology for the study until the issue was revisited.
- 6) The physicists _____ (not / validate) the hypothesis under experimental conditions until years later.
- 7) The coordinators _____ (not / collaborate) on the peace process at the beginning of the negotiations.
- 8) The economists _____ (not / forecast) the sudden surge in demand during the early part of the recovery.
- 9) The economists _____ (not / evaluate) the long-term consequences of the financial deregulation until it was too late.
- 10) The political analysts _____ (not / foresee) the rise of social media as a dominant political force.
- 11) The archaeologists _____ (not / unearth) any new artifacts during the excavation last year.
- 12) The environmentalists _____ (not / realize) the extent of deforestation's impact on global ecosystems until after extensive research.
- 13) The researchers _____ (not / identify) a reliable methodology for measuring the outcomes of the study during the planning phase.
- 14) The engineers _____ (not / verify) the structural integrity of the bridge before it was opened.
- 15) The educators _____ (not / recognize) the shift in student learning patterns brought about by online education during the early stages of the pandemic.
- 16) The journalists _____ (not / verify) their sources before publishing the article.
- 17) The scientists _____ (not / observe) the subtle shifts in the environment before the significant data was gathered.
- 18) The lawyers _____ (not / focus) on international human rights issues in their practice during that time.
- 19) The historians _____ (not / trace) the origins of the ancient civilization back to its roots during the research phase.
- 20) The biologists _____ (not / research) the effects of climate change on biodiversity during the initial studies.
- 21) The psychologists _____ (not / understand) the connection between early childhood trauma and later mental health issues.
- 22) The psychologists _____ (not / consider) the full range of cognitive biases that could have affected the experiment results.
- 23) The legal team _____ (not / consult) the relevant statutes before drafting the new legislation.
- 24) The diplomats _____ (not / coordinate) their actions during the peace talks as effectively as they had planned.
- 25) The philosophers _____ (not / question) the relationship between mind and body during the early stages of the debate.

Answer Sheet (Q6FCN6)

Past Continuous Tense: Negative Sentences: Advanced Level: Fill In The Blanks Quiz 6

- 1) weren't applying
- 2) weren't producing
- 3) weren't considering
- 4) weren't reporting
- 5) weren't agreeing
- 6) weren't validating
- 7) weren't collaborating
- 8) weren't forecasting
- 9) weren't evaluating
- 10) weren't foreseeing
- 11) weren't unearthing
- 12) weren't realizing
- 13) weren't identifying
- 14) weren't verifying
- 15) weren't recognizing
- 16) weren't verifying
- 17) weren't observing
- 18) weren't focusing
- 19) weren't tracing
- 20) weren't researching
- 21) weren't understanding
- 22) weren't considering
- 23) wasn't consulting
- 24) weren't coordinating
- 25) weren't questioning

scan or click here for more pdfs