

Fill In The Blanks with the correct Past Continuous Tense forms of the given verbs.

- 1) At that moment, the scientists _____ (not / consider) the long-term effects of climate change on biodiversity.
- 2) The diplomats _____ (not / foresee) the consequences of their decision on global relations at that time.
- 3) The biologists _____ (not / monitor) the effects of the pesticide on local ecosystems throughout the winter.
- 4) The designers _____ (not / develop) a sustainable packaging solution when the company launched its new product.
- 5) The architects _____ (not / consider) the aesthetic impact of their designs on the surrounding environment.
- 6) The sociologists _____ (not / apply) critical theory to their analysis of social issues during the early stages of their field.
- 7) The writers _____ (not / reflect) on the changing nature of society in their works before the cultural revolution.
- 8) The critics _____ (not / recognize) the innovative aspects of the novel until years after its publication.
- 9) The mathematicians _____ (not / solve) the complex equation correctly during their initial attempts.
- 10) The researchers _____ (not / monitor) the experiment's variables as carefully as they should have during the initial trials.
- 11) The artists _____ (not / embrace) abstract expressionism until after the influence of European modernism spread.
- 12) The engineers _____ (not / design) a solution that addressed the safety concerns raised by early tests.
- 13) The historians _____ (not / examine) the connections between economic downturns and political instability until after World War II.
- 14) The journalists _____ (not / discuss) the long-term consequences of the political decision until after the fact.
- 15) The politicians _____ (not / agree) on the terms of the treaty during the negotiations.
- 16) The researchers _____ (not / interpret) the data correctly until they refined their methods.
- 17) The executives _____ (not / implement) the new performance metrics in the department when the restructuring started.
- 18) The economists _____ (not / foresee) the rise of the digital economy when traditional markets were still dominant.
- 19) The scientists _____ (not / examine) the genetic modifications as thoroughly as they should have during their experiments.
- 20) The historians _____ (not / acknowledge) the long-term impact of war on national economies until later research was conducted.
- 21) The political analysts _____ (not / predict) the surprising result of the election at that time.
- 22) The researchers _____ (not / observe) the link between early education and long-term success until longitudinal studies were conducted.
- 23) The historians _____ (not / trace) the evolution of political ideologies across different civilizations during their early research.
- 24) The mathematicians _____ (not / formulate) a solution to the problem until new computational methods emerged.
- 25) The scientists _____ (not / investigate) the effects of political polarization on public health until it became an urgent issue.

Answer Sheet (Q6FCN8)

Past Continuous Tense: Negative Sentences: Advanced Level: Fill In The Blanks Quiz 8

- 1) weren't considering
- 2) weren't foreseeing
- 3) weren't monitoring
- 4) weren't developing
- 5) weren't considering
- 6) weren't applying
- 7) weren't reflecting
- 8) weren't recognizing
- 9) weren't solving
- 10) weren't monitoring
- 11) weren't embracing
- 12) weren't designing
- 13) weren't examining
- 14) weren't discussing
- 15) weren't agreeing
- 16) weren't interpreting
- 17) weren't implementing
- 18) weren't foreseeing
- 19) weren't examining
- 20) weren't acknowledging
- 21) weren't predicting
- 22) weren't observing
- 23) weren't tracing
- 24) weren't formulating
- 25) weren't investigating

scan or click here for more pdfs