PART A

Sarah: It is my sister's birthday tomorrow. I want to organize a surprise birthday party for her. I need some help.

Tina: Really? That sounds great. I can help you. What do you need?

Sarah: First, we should make a shopping list and buy them.

Tina: Sure. Let's start with the birthday cake. Do we need any beverages?

Sarah: Yes, we should buy some orange juice and lemonade.

Tina: What about decorations? Should we buy balloons and confetti?

Sarah: Of course. We need them to decorate the house? We also need many music CDs.

Tina: Yes, guests love dancing a lot. Do we have enough snacks?

Sarah: We don't have any. We should buy some cookies and crisps.

Tina: How old will your sister be?

Sarah: It is her fifteenth birthday. Why do you ask?

Tina: We must buy fifteen candles, then.

Sarah: You are great. Shopping list is ready now. We don't have much time. Let's go shopping.

PART B

1) Molly likes animals a lot. He wants to adopt a pet but his father doesn't want to live with an animal in the house.

2) Jake wants to become rich in the future. He needs a lot of money for his dreams.

3) Oliver will graduate from the university next year. He hopes to find a good job and make a career.

4) Lisa's dream is to travel around the world. She will probably go abroad in the future.

5) Harry has a girlfriend. Her name is Clara. They are very happy. I guess they will get married next summer.

PART C

1) We can go to this place to see historical works. They are interesting places to learn history.

2) My mother needs some fruit and vegetables. Where can I buy them?

3) We should call or go to this public building to report a burglary. What is it?

4) I want to watch a movie with my friends in the afternoon. Where can we watch a film?

5) We go to this place to buy bread, muffin or cake. I go there every morning.

PART D

We should protect the environment to make the world a better place. To do this, we should recycle waste materials like paper, plastic, and glass. We should also turn off the taps when we don't need water because we shouldn't waste water. Another important thing is to unplug electrical devices when we are not using them. We should plant trees to keep the air clean and green. We shouldn't cut down trees because they are very important for nature. People should pick up rubbish in parks and streets. We shouldn't throw rubbish on the ground or pollute the environment. If we all do our part, we can live in a cleaner and healthier world.
