We must protect all of our sources and use them efficiently because the world population is increasing fast. I think there won't be enough water and food for everybody in the future.

There are too many cars on the roads. A lot of cars cause pollution a lot and most of them carry only one person. It also causes ozone layer depletion. So we must use public transportation more often to save the nature.

Oliver

Sophia

I think there will be water shortage in the near future because people waste so much water and do not use water sources well. We should protect the water sources.
