JANE'S BLOG

MY TRIP TO LONDON

Hello friends! Welcome to my blog. You know I was in London last weekend. The first reason why I visited London was to check my English. I have been learning English for eight years and I wanted to talk to native speakers of the language. At the beginning, it was really difficult to understand the local people but then I could. I started communicating easily after a while. Also, on the first day I visited the London Eye. It was really huge and wonderful to watch the city on the top of it. I can advice you to get your ticket online before you go there because you can save the time and money. If you buy e-tickets, you don't wait much time to get the tickets and you save up to 15% on your London Eye tickets. After that on Sunday, I took a lot of photos of city. The city was exciting. I recommend you to visit this place. Wait for my new trips to new places. Until then, bye!

1. Why is it important to get tickets online?

- A) It is really difficult to get tickets in England.
- B) Because it is necessary to get the ticket online.

Answer the questions (4 - 5) according to text below:

All of us know the basic steps for choosing strong passwords and keep them secret. Rule number one: use good mix of letters, numbers and symbols – upper case (D, E, F) and lower case (d, e, f). Rule number two; use a different password for each of the devices you use or for each website you visit. Rule number three: Change your password once a month. Rule number four: Never share your password with anyone else. These rules sound easy to follow, right? One day we won't have the passwords because we won't need them. Some laptop computers already have fingerprint readers. But this will take time for everyone to have it. We still need passwords and if you want one that is secure and safe, the best advice is to make it long!

A) Never tell your passwords to anyone.

B) Use different letters, numbers and symbols.

C) At least, change your password once a month.

D) Write your passwords in a paper and keep it at home.

A) Because people must choose long passwords.

B )It is really difficult to have passwords.

C) Because people will use fingerprint readers and other technologies.

D) People won't use the computers and phones anymore.
