My name is Ece, and I study at Atatürk Secondary School in Ankara, Türkiye. There are many places in my school like the library, canteen, and sports field. Our Turkish teacher, Mrs. Kaya, is very kind, and the secretary helps everyone. We have students from different countries — my friend Maria is Spanish, and Kenji is Japanese. In Turkey, we celebrate special national days like April 23rd, National Sovereignty and Children's Day, and October 29th, Republic Day. After school, I join the Music Club, Maria joins the Drama Club, and Kenji joins the Science Club. I like English and art, but I don't like maths. I love my school because it's full of friends and fun!

1. What places are there in Ece's school? _____
2. Who are the people working at her school? _____
3. Which country is Maria from? _____

Emily: Hi, I am new at school.
 Jack: Hello, welcome to our school.
 Emily: Thank you. Who is our headmaster?
 Jack: He is Mr. Mytonn.
 Emily: Oh, okay thank you.
 Mr. Mytonn: Hi kids! Walk slowly, you mustn't run in the corridors and you must throw your rubbish into the bin. Please be kind to your teachers and friends. These are very important school rules.
 Students: Allright, Mr. Mytonn.
